

Deputy Director of Tobacco Control – Policy Research

Vital Strategies

Vital Strategies, based in New York City, is an international public health organization. We develop and oversee programs to strengthen public health systems and address leading causes of morbidity and mortality, providing expertise in project implementation and management, strategic communications, epidemiology and surveillance, and other core public health capacities. Our specific programs include road safety, obesity prevention, tobacco control, and activities to strengthen public health data systems and the use of public health data to guide policy and decision-making. Activities are based in low and middle income countries and cities in Africa, Latin America, Asia and the Pacific. Please visit our website at www.vitalstrategies.org to find out more about our work.

The Union

The International Union Against Tuberculosis and Lung Disease (The Union), headquartered in Paris, France since 1920, has regional and country offices in Africa, Asia Pacific, Europe, Latin America, North America and South-East Asia. The Union provides expertise in project implementation and management, epidemiology and surveillance, and other core public health capacities on a variety of global health challenges. For more information about The Union please visit www.theunion.org and about The Union's Tobacco Control Department please visit www.tobaccofreeunion.org.

The Position

This position will be involved in the tobacco control work of the International Union Against Tuberculosis and Lung Disease (The Union). This program is funded by Bloomberg Philanthropies and is designed to implement best practices of tobacco control policies at the global level. The position will be based in the Vital Strategies offices in New York City. Applicants must have a valid work permit to work in New York City.

Specific Duties

- Lead the monitoring of the scientific literature on all tobacco control issues in particular the debate around e-cigarettes and new products and provide regular summary updates for the Department.
- Lead the development of key reports for the Department from based on in-country work.
- Publish opinion pieces on key tobacco control issues e.g. interpretation of the industry fallacies from scientific point of view and voicing The Union's position on new products.
- Support country teams in developing policy recommendations for governments;
- Provide significant input into the planning of strategic development of the Tobacco Control Department;
- Identify new directions or areas of work for the Tobacco Control Department;
- Support the Director of Tobacco Control in day-to-day functioning of the Tobacco Control Department;
- Attend meetings with Bloomberg partners on behalf of the Director of Tobacco Control Department when needed;
- Assist the Director of Tobacco Control Department in monthly, quarterly, and annual reporting to Bloomberg Philanthropies.
- The incumbent will report to the Director of Tobacco Control Department at The Union;

- This position will be based in New York City;
- Other duties as required by the Director of the Tobacco Control Department;
- Competitive compensation commensurate with education and experience will be provided.

Qualifications and skill set:

- Doctoral Degree of Public Health required;
- Minimum 10 years' work experience in the field of public health, Minimum 5 years' work experience in the field of tobacco control or NCD, prior experience of working in international settings strongly preferred;
- Excellent communication skills, both face-to-face and in writing;
- Fluency in written and spoken English, fluency in another foreign language a plus;
- Organized, responsive, attentive to details, and collaborative;
- Up to 25% of travel is required.

How to apply:

Applicants interest in the post, should send to hr@theunion.org their CV, cover letter, any examples of papers that have been published, such as academic papers, and the contact information of three employers who can provided references. Please indicate in the subject line of the email: 'Vacancy Deputy Director TC - Research'

Application deadline: open until filled.

Vital Strategies offers competitive compensation for full-time employees and pro-rata for part-time employees based on prior experience and qualifications as well as comprehensive benefits in order to best support our people. Benefits we offer include: health, dental and vision insurance where Vital Strategies pays generously towards the cost of these benefits for employees and their families/domestic partners; 15 paid vacation days (rising to 20 paid vacation days from fourth year of service and 25 from seventh year onwards), 13 paid federal holidays and paid days off between the Christmas and New Year's holidays; paid sick days; retirement savings plan; commuter benefits; and basic life and personal accident insurance.